For a band to continue to thrive 40 years in the music business, the mantra must be these songs are bigger than any one member. Since 1982, the Great White sound has captivated audiences worldwide with crushing, blues-based guitar riffs and swagger that invokes an emotional high for anyone that listens. The band has sold over 10 million albums worldwide, has six Top 100 Billboard hits, nine Top 200 Billboard albums, and two platinum albums. Great White is best known for their Grammy® nominated Best Hard Rock Performance hit, "Once Bitten, Twice Shy." To experience their hits live in concert – "Rock Me," "Mista Bone," "Save Your Love," "House of Broken Love," and "Lady Red Light"—is to ride an emotional wave of sultry connections, arousing lyrics, and an all-out marathon of hard-hitting orchestrations. The current lineup includes original members Mark Kendall (guitar), Michael Lardie (guitar, keyboards), and Audie Desbrow (drums), joined by Scott Snyder (bass), and Brett Carlisle (vocals). More information about Great White is available at www.officialgreatwhite.com.

Slaughter hit radio, MTV and the U.S. touring circuit like a tornado- coming seemingly out of nowhere to roll through everything in its path and turn it upside down. The band reached stardom in 1990 with their first album, "Stick It To Ya," which reached double platinum in the United States. The album included several hit singles including "Up All Night," "Spend My Life," "Mad About You," and "Fly to the Angels." Slaughter has played for close to three decades rocking stadiums around the globe. They have shown that with perseverance and sheer talent, a band can survive and win over the support of fans. The band includes Mark Slaughter (lead vocals and rhythm guitar), Dana Strum (bass), Jeff Blando (lead guitar and backup vocals), and Jordan Cannata (drums and percussion).
