The first rebellion started in 1986. Forty years later, SKID ROW is still bringing the fire.

From the streets of New Jersey to the world's biggest stages, SKID ROW has built a legacy defined by uncompromising rock 'n' roll, multi-platinum albums, chart-topping hits, and anthems that have transcended generations. With classics like "18 and Life," "I Remember You," "Youth Gone Wild," and "Slave to the Grind," the band helped define an era while remaining true to the rebellious spirit that started it all.

Now, a new chapter begins.

Celebrating four decades of uncompromising rock 'n' roll, founding members Rachel Bolan and Snake Sabo, alongside Scotti Hill and Rob Hammersmith, welcome powerhouse vocalist Justin Sargent to the lineup. Armed with an extraordinary voice, commanding stage presence, and undeniable chemistry with the band, Sargent brings a renewed intensity to the SKID ROW live experience.

Known for their explosive performances, blistering guitar riffs, and arena-sized anthems, SKID ROW delivers the kind of high-energy rock show that made them one of the most electrifying bands of their generation. With a legendary catalog, a powerful new frontman, and their sights firmly set on the future, SKID ROW proves that some rebellions never die.

The songs are timeless. The energy is undeniable. And the rebellion continues.
